

Rainbows - Learners Version

This version of the pattern has been especially written for those learning to crochet and/or learning to read patterns.

If you have a question about it, no matter how small or "stupid" you think it is, please email me to ask it.

Remember, there are no "stupid" questions when you are learning, how else are you supposed to learn?

I have used:

Thread Rainbows: DMC Perle or Petra Size 5 in red, orange, yellow, green mid blue, royal blue and violet, 2.00mm hook, needle for sewing in ends.

Yarn Rainbows: DK yarn in red, orange, yellow, green mid blue, royal blue and violet, 4.00mm hook, needle for sewing in ends.

This photo is of the thread versions. The photos below are of the yarn versions.

Small Rainbow

Pattern says: 8ch in purple.

This means: Using the purple yarn, cast on using a slip knot then continue to make a further 8 chain. This is known as a starting chain or foundation chain.

Notes: When working in to your starting chain, you are effectively "turning" the work, although it is very rare for a pattern to say so. This means that the last chain worked becomes the first chain that you work into.

I always work into the back loop of the chain as I find this gives a neater edge. However, this is down to personal preference and, as long as you work into the same loop(s) each time, it doesn't matter which one it is.

Pattern says:

Row 1: Dc in 2nd ch from hook, dc in next ch, 2dc in next ch, dc in next ch, 2dc in next ch, dc in next 2ch, change to royal, turn. (9sts)

This means:

Miss the very first chain and work a double crochet into the next one.

Work a double crochet into the next chain.

Work two double crochet into the next chain (an increase).

Work a double crochet into the next chain.

Work two double crochet into the next chain (an increase).

Work a double crochet into each of the next 2 chain, changing to royal on the last double crochet.

To "change to royal", work the last double crochet as normal until there are two loops on the hook. Drop the purple, pick up the royal and pull through the two loops to complete the stitch.

Turn your work so that the last stitch worked now becomes the first one to work into.

You should have worked 9 stitches for row 1.

Pattern says:

Row 2: 1ch, dc in next 2dc, 2dc in next dc, dc in next 3dc, 2dc in next dc, dc in next 2dc, change to blue, turn. (11sts)

This means:

Chain 1 - this is for a turning chain and is not counted as a stitch.

Work a double crochet into each of the next 2 stitches.

Work two double crochet into the next stitch (an increase).

Work a double crochet into each of the next 3 stitches.

Work two double crochet into the next stitch (an increase).

Work a double crochet into each of the next 2 stitches, changing to blue on the last double crochet.

To "change to blue", work the last double crochet as normal until there are two loops on the hook. Drop the royal, pick up the blue and pull through the two loops to complete the stitch.

Turn your work so that the last stitch worked now becomes the first one to work into.

You should have worked 11 stitches for row 2.

Pattern says:

Row 3: 1ch, dc in next 2dc, (2dc in next dc, dc in next dc) 3 times, 2dc in next dc, dc in next 2dc, change to green, turn. (15sts)

This means:

Chain 1 - this is for a turning chain and is not counted as a stitch.

Work a double crochet into each of the next 2 stitches.

Work two double crochet into the next stitch (an increase).

Work a double crochet into the next stitch.

These last two instructions are worked again twice more, giving a total of being worked 3 times.

Work two double crochet into the next stitch (an increase).

Work a double crochet into each of the next 2 stitches, changing to green on the last double crochet.

To "change to green", work the last double crochet as normal until there are two loops on the hook. Drop the blue, pick up the green and pull through the two loops to complete the stitch.

Turn your work so that the last stitch worked now becomes the first one to work into.

You should have worked 15 stitches for row 3.

Pattern says:

Row 4: 1ch, (dc in next 2dc, 2dc in next dc) twice, dc in next 3dc, (2dc in next dc, dc in next 2dc) twice, change to yellow, turn. (19 sts)

This means:

Chain 1 - this is for a turning chain and is not counted as a stitch.

Work a double crochet into each of the next 2 stitches.

Work two double crochet into the next stitch (an increase).

These last two instructions are worked again, giving a total of being worked twice.

Work a double crochet into each of the next 3 stitches.

Work two double crochet into the next stitch (an increase).

Work a double crochet into each of the next 2 stitches.

These last two instructions are worked again, giving a total of being worked twice, changing to yellow on the last double crochet.

To "change to yellow", work the last double crochet as normal until there are two loops on the hook. Drop the green, pick up the yellow and pull through the two loops to complete the stitch.

Turn your work so that the last stitch worked now becomes the first one to work into.

You should have worked 19 stitches for row 4.

Pattern says:

Row 5: 1ch, dc in next 3dc, (2dc in next dc, dc in next 3dc) 4 times, change to orange, turn. (23sts)

This means:

Chain 1 - this is for a turning chain and is not counted as a stitch.

Work a double crochet into each of the next 3 stitches.

Work two double crochet into the next stitch (an increase).

Work a double crochet into each of the next 3 stitches.

These last two instructions are worked again 3 more time, giving a total of being worked 4 times, changing to orange on the last double crochet.

To "change to orange", work the last double crochet as normal until there are two loops on the hook. Drop the yellow, pick up the orange and pull through the two loops to complete the stitch.

Turn your work so that the last stitch worked now becomes the first one to work into.

You should have worked 23 stitches for row 5.

Pattern says:

Row 6: 1ch, dc in next dc, (2dc in next dc, dc in next 3dc) 5 times, 2dc in next dc, dc in next dc, change to red, turn. (29sts)

This means:

Chain 1 - this is for a turning chain and is not counted as a stitch.

Work a double crochet into the next stitch.

Work two double crochet into the next stitch (an increase).

Work a double crochet into each of the next 3 stitches.

These last two instructions are worked again 4 more time, giving a total of being worked 5 times, changing to red on the last double crochet.

To "change to red", work the last double crochet as normal until there are two loops on the hook. Drop the orange, pick up the red and pull through the two loops to complete the stitch.

Turn your work so that the last stitch worked now becomes the first one to work into.

You should have worked 29 stitches for row 6.

Pattern says:

Row 7: 1ch, dc in next 14dc, 2dc in next dc, dc in next 14dc, fasten off and sew in ends. (30sts)

This means:

Chain 1 - this is for a turning chain and is not counted as a stitch.

Work a double crochet into each of the next 14 stitches.

Work two double crochets into the next stitch (an increase).

Work a double crochet into each of the next 14 stitches.

To fasten off, cut the end you are working with, leaving enough to thread a needle to sew the end in with, then pull the end through the loop on the hook. Pull it tight to close the loop. You can now sew in any loose ends.

You should have worked 30 stitches for row 7.
